

Always passionate about sports, he approaches through sport to techniques of visualization, meditation and yoga.

Graduated in Sports Sciences from the University of Bologna, he joins and he practices and research the study of esotericism and religions compare.

Professional pilot and flight instructor, he undertakes trips and stays abroad in verifying and searching for evidence of ancient and modern sapiential traditions.

He holds the position of president of Firenze Alchemica.